

See What Other Clients Have To Say

My wife Sally and I decided several years ago that we would eventually live in the Outer Banks of North Carolina. Approximately four weeks ago with the help of Re/Max real estate broker Chandler Spawr our dream came true. While Sally and I had decided to start a new chapter in our lives here in the Outer Banks, without the assistance of Chandler this would not have been possible. I have been a police officer for over twenty years in New York. I have become a pretty good judge of character and I can say without hesitation that Chandler Spawr is an honest, reliable and sincere individual that will go the extra mile no matter what. He showed us what a true professional real estate broker should be. After we settled into our new home in Southern Shores, Chandler called us on occasion to make sure we were all set and offered his assistance if we needed it. That shows you the type of individual Chandler Spawr is. I highly recommend that you contact Chandler for your next real estate purchase.

Sincerely, David & Sally Kole Southern Shores, North Carolina

Chandler, It has been a while but I just wanted to extend our appreciation for the great job you did selling our lot in Southern Shores. I truly believe that without someone like yourself with the connections and respect you have been able to compile over the years, we would still have the lot up for sell. In addition, it was great how you didn't neglect us during the "on the market" phase. It was painful to let the property go and you understood this and took care in dealing with it and us. I know if we sell our other property in Whalehead in the future, you are the only broker we would ever consider. This is high praise but well deserved. Thanks. Ted and Gwen Harrison

Chandler Spawr represented us in the sale of our semi-oceanfront home. Chandler's marketing strategies for getting our home out in the mass market were spectacular (especially given the real market we are now experiencing). The customer service we received was impeccable and flawless. He was almost always available when we needed to reach him either by cell or in the office. Chandler's attention to detail was very impressive, and we always felt that our best interests were of utmost importance to him. We realized he had many other clients that were also very anxious about selling their properties as well, but, we never felt at any time that we were "back-burnered"....he made us feel we were his only client!! We would, without a doubt, recommend Chandler Spawr to anyone that is either buying or selling real estate on the Outer Banks!! Rick and Lisa Watkins Amelia, Virginia

Dear Chandler,

Please accept our sincere thanks for your effort with the marketing, negotiating and sale of our commercial property on Dune Street in Nags Head. In a most difficult market your enthusiasm set you apart from the crowd and I found your work ethic to be unique.

The value and quality of a Realtor can be measured in many ways but we can think of none that has more meaning than sincerity and care, particularly after the sale. Your time and help with our move will always be remembered. I will recommend you highly to any buyer or seller and will gladly tell them why.

Thank you again and I am certain we will work together in the future.

Sincerely, Bob and Debbie Walker

I listed our home on the Outer Banks at the end of April due to divorce. After consulting with three other companies, it was Chandler I chose, not solely for pricing, but rather his friendly and professional manner, insight to the sales market and how to best sell my home in a timely manner.

His approach to marketing was extremely efficient. From using the website to “Showcase” my home, preparing brochures and contacting other agents, Chandler was always ahead of the rest. I knew I could rely on his expertise and professional judgments.

In the month that followed, we had many contacts via telephone, emails and faxes. These occurred almost on a daily basis. He would keep me up to date on how many showings the house had and comments from prospective buyers and agents. He even had the amount of times my home was visited on the website! That type of information and communication is nothing less than awesome!

If I had a question or something to inform Chandler about and he was busy at the time, he would return my call the same day. It didn’t matter if it was a weekday, weekend, day or evening, he was there to help.

Selling a home long distance added tension to an already stressful situation for me. By using Chandler as my agent, much of that burden was lifted. I felt extremely confident that things were in good hands while I was living in Pennsylvania. My home sold in a MONTH! If I am ever lucky enough to someday have another property on the Outer Banks, you can be assured I will come back to Chandler. Until then, I will recommend his services highly to my friends that own Outer Banks property.

Sincerely, Joan Houshower, Downingtown, Pennsylvania
